

25!

We are celebrating our 25th Anniversary in 2010!

Please consider a gift to the National Art Education Foundation in increments of $25 (i.e. $25, 50, 75 or more) in recognition of this important milestone.

Season's Greetings!

Give the Gift of Your Support for Visual Arts Education

Consider making a tax-deductible contribution to the National Art Education Foundation

Did you know?

-  Your gift to the National Art Education Foundation provides opportunities for furthering our mutual hopes for expanding leadership, investing in innovation, and encouraging lifelong learning in the arts and the profession of arts education.
-  We're on the move! Grant applications to the National Art Education Foundation submitted for consideration this fall are over twice the number received in the previous year.
-  National Art Education Foundation research grants are now providing up to $10,000 in funding, double of our previous maximum amount of $5,000.
-  Plans are underway for NAEF's 25th Anniversary benefit event—scheduled to take place in Baltimore in April 2010.

Consider making a contribution to NAEF to enhance your legacy of achievement and commitment to arts education research and professional development.

Contributions by check should be made payable and mailed to:
National Art Education Foundation, 1916 Association Drive, Reston, VA 20191-1590.
Include donor name (as it should appear in print) and address.

NAEF is a 501(c)3 organization. All donations are tax deductible and year end donations will be acknowledged by written receipt in early January 2010.

An additional acknowledgement letter will be sent to donations sent in memory or honor of individuals as long as this information is also provided at the time of donation to NAEF. Please note that NAEA and NAEF offices are closed December 23-January 3, 2009.

We thank you for your support of the National Art Education Foundation.
Happy Holidays!
